- District Court Jury Trials have been continued for at least 60 days from March 18, 2020, per Order of Judge Travis O’Gorman.
- Case Progressions: Appearance by telephone for Status Conference Hearings is encouraged for both attorneys and their clients. Self-Represented Litigants may also appear by phone. However, as of March 26, anyone who prefers to appear in person during District Court proceedings will not be denied access to the courtroom. Sentencings and certain other proceedings will require personal appearance if Ordered so by the District Court Judge. Some courtroom access issues will be handled by the Judge on a case by case basis.
- Attorneys are encouraged to continue to file paperwork via the State Court Administrator’s E-Filing System, while Self-Represented Litigants may e-mail filings to: kevin.horn@nebraska.gov
- Persons needing to apply for Protection Orders or Passports will be allowed access to our office. Please call us at 308-762-6293 to gain access to the District Court Office.
